

National Day for Staff Networks Conference

#ReadyForChange

John Sands

John Sands has been working with Employee Resource Groups as a leader, member and ally for many years and is now using his expertise to help leaders learn, confirm and create strong, sustainable employee groups. He has implemented ERG leadership programs across a broad range of organizations from many different sectors and geography's, hoping to always make a difference.