

National Day for Staff Networks Conference

#ReadyForChange

Barry Boffy MBE

An EDI thought leader with a history of working in the social and criminal justice sector.

A confident keynote and public speaker who believes in working collaboratively across industries as a way of sharing best practice whilst enhancing employee experience.

A passionate believer in the power of Employee Resource Groups and a fierce ally and advocate; amplifying the voices of those from under-represented, seldom-heard or otherwise marginalised backgrounds.